

+

SAILORS QUIZ

Q1. What happens to the temperature as a cold front passes?

Q2. What kind of front is likely to bring poor visibility?

Q3. What does wind direction do if it is described as Backing?

Q4. What does wind direction do if it is described as Veering?

Q5. As a cold front passes what weather would you expect?

Q6. What happens to the temperature as a warm front passes?

Q7. What sound signal should a sailing yacht make in fog?

Q8. What does the sound signal of two short blasts mean?

Q9. You see a yacht heading towards some unmarked rocks. What sound signal should you make?

Q10. What is the sound signal for engines going astern?

Q11. What is the sound signal for turning to starboard?

Q12. What does the sound signal of two long and two short blasts mean?

Q13. What does the sound signal of five short blasts mean?

Q14. You can't make out the colours of a nearby cardinal buoy, but it has a top mark of two arrows pointing together. What is it?

Q15. Coming in to harbour you meet a red post with a green band around the middle. What is this?

Q16. The top mark is missing from a cardinal buoy near you. But the coloured bands are black at the top, then yellow in the middle, then black at the bottom. What is it?

A1. It drops.	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>
A2. A warm front.	<input type="checkbox"/>
A3. It moves round in an anti-clockwise direction.	<input type="checkbox"/>
A4. It moves round in a clockwise direction.	<input type="checkbox"/>
A5. Heavy rain showers.	<input type="checkbox"/>
A6. It will rise.	<input type="checkbox"/>
A7. Dash dot dot - morse "D" I am manoeuvring with difficulty.	<input type="checkbox"/>
A8. I am altering course to port.	<input type="checkbox"/>
A9. Dot dot dash - Morse "U" you are running into danger.	<input type="checkbox"/>
A10. Three short blasts.	<input type="checkbox"/>
A11. One short blast.	<input type="checkbox"/>
A12. I intend to overtake you on your port side.	<input type="checkbox"/>
A13. I am in doubt as to your intentions or you are not taking sufficient action to avoid collision.	<input type="checkbox"/>
A14. West Cardinal buoy.	<input type="checkbox"/>
A15. It tells you the main channel is to starboard, but there is also a minor channel to port.	<input type="checkbox"/>
A16. An East Cardinal buoy.	<input type="checkbox"/>

A1.

A2.

A3.

A4.

A5.

A6.

A7.

A8.

A9.

A10.

A11.

A12.

A13.

A14.

A15.

A16.